

Processing Hazardous Materials Assessment

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Every chemical manufacturer must supply customers with a(n) _____ that lists physical and chemical hazards associated with the compound.
 - A. OSHA
 - B. MSDS
 - C. EPA
2. Acute health conditions appear
 - A. soon after overexposure to hazardous materials.
 - B. after many years of exposure.
 - C. both a and b.
3. Hazardous materials are assigned to different classifications so that the warehouse employee can properly
 - A. prepare the warehouse location for the item.
 - B. transport the material through the warehouse.
 - C. select Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) to prevent accidental exposure.
 - D. all of the above.
4. The warehouse manager's responsibility is to
 - A. know the hazmat requirements of government agencies.
 - B. translate government regulations for warehouse employees.
 - C. train employees that are required to handle hazmats.
 - D. all of the above.

5. Newly hired warehouse employees who will handle hazmats must be trained
 - A. within 90 days of being hired.
 - B. two months after being hired.
 - C. after being certified.

6. All certified hazmat employees must be retrained
 - A. in their birth month every year.
 - B. every five years after certification.
 - C. every two years.

7. The Emergency Action Plan is concerned with
 - A. chemical spills.
 - B. floods.
 - C. hurricanes.
 - D. fire.
 - E. all of the above.

8. MSDA Sheets are only used in emergencies.
 - A. True
 - B. False

9. The Emergency Response Plan is designed to
 - A. determine if the fire department is able to treat hazardous spills.
 - B. be sure that workers are trained to respond to hazardous accidents.
 - C. dictate pre-emergency planning.
 - D. b and c above.

10. Which emergency plan deals strictly with hazardous waste emergency operations?
- A. Contingency plan
 - B. Emergency Response Plan
 - C. Alternate Response Plan
 - D. Hazardous Response Plan